

Mary J. Morris

'The Larches'
Spottonham Road
Larswick
Lincs
SP12 5MS

tel: 01854 658194

Experience

2001–present

Education and Publications Officer, Boston Museum. Responsible for organizing annual programme of school visits, lectures, and holiday courses. In charge of liaison with primary and secondary schools. Preparing and publishing a range of leaflets and 'mini-guides' to the Museum's collections. Managing an annual budget of £40,000.

1996–2001

Head of Humanities, Larswick Middle School. Responsible for department of four teaching history, geography, religious education. Preparing and administering departmental policy documents. Member of School's Senior Management Team. Pastoral care tutor to 35 pupils. Responsible for school magazine.

1992–1996

Teacher of History at St Wulfstan's High School, Scunthorpe. Teaching pupils across full ability and age range (11-18). Preparing classes for GCSE examinations, GCE 'A' levels and university entrance. House tutor.

Qualifications and training

Postgraduate Certificate in Education, University of Hull
BA Honours 2nd class, History and Economics, York University
'A' level English, History, French
'O' level English Language, English Literature, Maths, French, History,
Geography, Biology

Interests

Mountain walking and rock climbing
Foreign travel
Voluntary social work with local women's refuge

Referees

Dr P. J. Cleary
Director, Boston Museum
Boston
Lincs
BO1 2RF

Mrs S. P. Greenwick
34, High Street
Brentham
Surrey
GU23 9BV