

Volt Services Group

is looking for a
Production Manager

Description

- Do you have a dream of working with a large multi-state manufacturing company in a leadership role?
- Do you thrive in an environment that demands excellence and rewards innovative and assertive management styles?

If so, we want to hear from you!

We are currently seeking a swing shift Production Manager that has a dynamic background in manufacturing. You will be responsible for providing leadership and mentoring of a large group of hands-on supervisors and production workers.

The successful candidate in this position will be expected to grow into a plant manager role within 2 years of the hire date so the advancement opportunities are unparalleled!

Requirements

In order to be considered for this lucrative position you MUST have a stable job history with the last 2 positions being at least 4 years in length with a promotion within those 4 years.

A 4 year degree is desirable but not an absolute must.
